

ENGLISH

- Write a flash-back story using information about a crime and punishments of the past
- Write a biography of a famous criminal
- Perform a poem

HISTORY

We will be looking at how Crime and Punishment developed from the Romans, through the Anglo-Saxons, Tudors and Victorians to the present day. We will compare crimes and punishments to today and reach conclusions about why both have changed.

MATHS

We will be working on:

- Place Value to 10million
- Addition, subtraction, multiplication and division
- Fractions
- Position and direction
-

GEOGRAPHY

- Locate the main deserts and seas of the world.
- Understand the significance of longitude and latitude.
- Work out time zones at different parts in the world

Crime and Punishment

SCIENCE

Circulation

- Identifying the main parts of the circulatory system.
- Learning how blood is oxygenated
- Learning how water and nutrients are transported around the body

PE

- Swimming – learn to swim 25 meters using different strokes
- Kinball

COMPUTING

- Discover what a computer system is, how computers interact and how they are used in communications
- Create a website

TOPIC VOCABULARY

Exile	Pillory	Jury
Judge	Court		Execution
Gladiator	Arson	Lawyer
Legacy	Deter	Legionaries
Justice System

ART

We will be developing our photography skills and creating pictures from photos

