

English

In English we will be learning about the features of narrative tales and writing our own Stone Age versions. We will revisit the features of an explanation text and write our own. We will also write our own diary entries based within the Stone Age

Science

We will learn about electricity: naming common electrical items, constructing our own simple circuits, adding switches to our circuits and also identifying what makes good insulators and conductors

Geography

We will identify key aspects of human geography including: settlements and land use and why people might travel between different countries. We will study aspects of physical geography, including: climate zones & biomes and vegetation belts. and

MFL

We will be learning simple words and phrases in Spanish.

Computing

We will create our own Wiki.

Maths

In Maths we will complete our learning about decimal numbers. We will use pounds and pence to solve problems involving money. We will record time in hours, minutes & seconds. We will convert time from analogue to digital on 12 & 24 hour clocks. We will interpret data in charts and graphs and revisit properties of shapes.

PSHE

Term 5 - Relationships
Term 6 - Changing Me.

RE

We will look at the impact for Christians when Jesus left and of Pentecost. We will also look at how and why people mark the significant events of life.

PE

In PE we will be developing our skills in athletic and field events. We will develop our key skills in catching, throwing and running.

History

We will find out about the life and culture of prehistoric people. We will learn about their way of finding food, cave dwellings, early buildings and discoveries such as the use of flint.

Music

We will study the structure of songs, focusing on Blackbird. We will learn basic instrumental skills by playing tunes in varying styles.

Rock of Ages

Stone Age to Iron Age

Year 4, Summer Term
Amethyst, Diamond and Topaz

Vocabulary: Stone age, Iron age, Bronze age, Palaeolithic, Mesolithic, Neolithic, pre-history, archaeology, mammoth, tusk, hunter, gatherer, cave dweller, primitive, flint, club, sickle, spear, hill forts, roundhouse, armour, borer, hammer-stone, cave painting, Skara Brae, fur pelt, hand axe.

Art/DT

We will study some Stone age cave art and the symbolism. We will add materials to create interest and detail in images. We will use different hardness of pencil in line, tone and texture. In DT we will create some Stone Age foods, following a basic recipe.